Who is in? I am not signed up but plan to go. It is the last chance to get in some laps before the championships.

Anyone else? This used to be our biggest event. My schedule is tight with Nats less than 2 weeks after and I'm on the fence about making October if it is a small field. I might save my money and do the Thurs test session on 11/6.

I signed up this morning but I'm going to use the weekend as a 2 day test for nationals. I debated about racing or testing the day b4 nationals, and with PRC's new rules I wasn't looking forward to it but Porsches at the Point is a tradition so as it stands I'll be there.
