Lol... besides NASA events do any folks participate in any PCA club events with their 944 spec??... I'm coming as a member of VARA (vintage auto racing association). Which BTW is another venue to get track time in the 944 spec. It even sounds like if there are enough entrants they would be willing to give the 944 spec folks their own run group... just throwing it out there.

For those nearby I'm pretty fortunate to have (what I consider) a decent home shop with lift and loads of fab tools one can get hurt with.

Regards,

Dino
