1986 Porsche 944 Spec Race Car

This is as new as you can get without building your own. I have more pics so that you can see the attention to details that went into this build. It is 944 spec legal. Car has been professionally aligned and corner balanced by Theory Racing. With a 230lb driver, car weighs 2450lbs with ¼ tank of gas. The car is ready to race with a current NASA logbook and 2014 tech decal. It has a set of RRs with 5 weekends on them (Aug 2013 – Feb 2014) and they have lots of life left in them. I will also include a set of RAs for rain tires. They only have 4 weekends on them (Feb 2013 – May 2013).

Engine: (Every minor detail was addressed such as all brackets were powder coated)

88 Pro built motor by Porsche Autowerks of Richmond VA (12 hours on it)

Hello,

I don't know yr name, nor yr email address. Noting was specified in the post, or I just could not see it.

I was inquiring about 944 spec for sale to a few posts.

Received an answer from James Cognetta that his car is sold, but have no idea which car that was.

Is that you James.

Tnx,

Lev.
