

Set of Lifters

Posted by michaelreich - 18 Dec 2014 11:50

I have a set of 8 lifters, out of a running engine, guaranteed to stay pumped up overnight. I am asking $50, shipped to continental U.S. You can email me at or feel free to call at 864-404-5226.

Are these still available?

I also have a few other parts left and some of the specialized tools for the 944 such as the rear camber adjusting tool and the belt wrenches.

Lifters and tools are sold. I did find a second rear camber adjustment tool that I will sell for $20, shipped.

I also have a stock 944 turbo oil cooler, with hoses. It does not include the adapter that bolts to the block and replaces the water/oil heat exchanger. Would like $60, shipped.

I also still have a very good fuel rail and a set of PFC Performance Friction front pads, new in box, Compound 11.

$60 for the fuel rail, shipped

$75 for the brakes, shipped

$125 for both, shipped

I also have a cam and a cam tower and a water to oil cooler w/housing, but I am not sure anyone is ever looking for these items.

I have a good front spoiler, with a small repair on the side, but I am not sure how I would ship it economically.

Thanks,
