

FS: Turbo Oil Cooler Housing / Cookie cutters

Posted by PorscheDoc - 25 May 2009 01:54

Turbo oil cooler housing for sale. Housing only. Included is the round intermediate guide sleeve as well that inserts in the block (where the 2 green o rings are installed).

$100 shipped in the ConUS.

PM me or shoot me an email at karl at wilen.us if you are interested. I have a bad habit about not checking on on posts for a few days if you reply here.

Set (4) of 15" cookie cutters in good shape. $300.

Bump for a good seller. I bought his 28mm torsion bars. Shipped on time and arrived in good condition, properly packaged up.
