

Looking for a trailer

Posted by Fooshe - 17 Feb 2011 16:35

Anyone out there selling an enclosed race trailer? I may even go open if it has what I am looking for. The closer to So Cal the better.

Thanks!

I have a open trailer I would be willing to sell.

It is an 16 foot open trailer with tire rack for 8 944 spec tires. Set-up for my 944 with stops. Wood floor and custom ramps

It is an older trailer, but still works great. I moved up to an enclosed trailer. I also have tongue box for it that I never got around to installing.
