

Just Track It - Upcoming Events!

Posted by Stetson - 05 Aug 2016 10:34

We've got a few upcoming events for you to get out and shake down your 944s. We'll be at Atlanta Motorsports Park on August 27th and Barber Motorsports Park on the weekend of September 24-25.

The Barber weekend is what I consider my dress rehearsal for the Mid-South race there in October. Come on out and run nose to tail with me as I try to break the 1:50 barrier.

Eurasian will be on site as a sponsor to help with any tuning you need.

Hit us up at JustTrackIt.net to register.

See you all at the track.
