

Mid-O Crossover

Posted by Sterling Doc - 28 Jul 2011 14:35

Just a reminder to not get caught out by the event filling up - it goes quickly! The last Mid-O event had 20 racers on the waiting list that did not get in, and it was not a cross-over!

I have an extra set of front & rear pads (Blues in front, and HP+ rear) that are new in box, that I will sell for $125 for all of them. I Can bring them to Mid-Ohio.

Not to disrail the Mid-O conversation but I'm interested in the Brake pads Eric. What would the shipping to 94561 be ? (Need pads and been meaning to try the HP+ setup)

Jerry - Sorry I missed this. I'd liek to keep this local, b ut if no one wants them at Mid-Ohio, you get 1st dibbs.

Looks like we have 10 cars entered this weekend. Maybe one more coming.

Ha! I just bought a set from tire rack (andrew racing never responded to a voicemail I left to buy from them) last week.

Sorry Joel, and this was your idea. Sorry I didn't get the word out sooner. I did this the day one of my Hawk Certs was to expire.
