924S for Sale in Columbus, prepped and logbooked

Posted by Salanis42 - 25 Mar 2014 08:16

Long story short: moved to Columbus for a job, lost it, decided it's time to sell the car.

I have a fully prepped and logbooked '88 924S that I want to sell. I haven't posted up an official ad in the "For Sale" forum yet, but will soon. Need to figure out what the going rate is for one of these.
