Received my CDOC stickers yesterday. They ought to look good.

Yeah, they should look pretty good. Did we decide on a location yet, or are we waiting until tomorrow at Chuck's house to do that? I know he said he wanted the front ones to go on back part of the front fenders, but I don't remember any talk about the rears... I would assume we'd put it just ahead of the tail light, or wherever it fits after we put on the NASA RM decals, but I don't know.

let's all talk and figure out where we want them to go . or maybe we can leave these open for where ever each driver wants them to go...

i'm ready for some racing !
