

Pit Bull Brawl - CMP - May 17-18

Posted by AgRacer - 23 Apr 2014 10:27

3 weeks out from my closest race, wanted to see if anybody else was planning on going. Only 2 signed up right now. Yet another track I haven't been to before in this car. I'm up to 10 tracks I've raced at in this car in 2 years, not one of them twice.

1. Hurley

2. Stanley

3. Evans

4. Barber

5. Yousko

6. Duffy

Wow, 6 944's, that's the most I have raced with. Should be a great weekend, just finishing up the new 2.5" mandrel exhaust, hope it makes a difference in power. Had a great time racing with Pete at RR, the lack of a short fifth won't make a difference at CMP.

Shaping up to be an awesome week end both field and weather wise! Since I haven't been to CMP yet, is there anything in the way of food or groceries close to the track?

I'm picking up my new welder today so I can tack weld in the closeout panel for the spare tire well. It wont be done, but its making plenty of room for the trans cooler I plan to install in its place.

They make a good breakfast sandwich at the track, lunch is ok. I try to support the track concession so they stay around. There is a mini mart gas station at track entrance, but Kershaw is only 5 min away.
