

2014 Texas Area Season

Posted by Timwold - 04 Nov 2013 12:03

It looks like PCA has 50% of the 2014 season posted and NASA has its complete schedule online as well. PCA will have 5 "local" races; March TWS, April COTA, May NOLA, October MSR Cresson, and October Hallett. There is some overlap with conflicting dates with NASA.

I think it would be a good thing for the series for people to communicate where they intend to race. We can try to maximize participants. The local racers I know of are:

1. Todd Imwold
2. Steve Coomes
3. Greg Hutmacher
4. Mark Steele
5. Lisa Steele
6. Bill Georgas
7. Phil Hansen
8. Jose Avala (Austin)
9. Kevin Mitchell
10. Steve Coomes Rental Car
11. Chuck Frahm

Non locals who run in Texas

12. Chris Blazer
13. Julie Bailey
14. Terry Morris
15. Chris Blazer rental car

Who am I missing?

I intend to run the 5 PCA events and a few saturdays for local NASA events.

Any of you Texas guys gonna tow out to Barber (Feb 15-16) for the 4 region event? Pricing is discounted right now through the first by $50. There is already 5 cars projected to be there. It's just a short trip down I-20 from the DFW area. If you need an extra day of track time to make it worth it, the Friday T&T is still open to more cars.

Jason-

I will not be able to make it to Barber. I am getting a re spray done on my car and it will not be ready in February. Good luck.

It is looking like we will have 10 plus at TWS in March- you should rent a car from blazer or comes.

Heh, if I come back to Texas for a race its going to be for the COTA event again so I can chase after the salmon pig some more. I've been reviewing videos from that race since it was my last one in prep for this coming year. That car had some legs down the back straight. He was pulling me even without the draft.

BTW, I'll have had my car 2 years in April and have still not had it on the same track twice. The streak continues for the first couple races this year too since I'm in NC. I'm trading TWS, Hallett, and COTA for Road Atlanta, VIR, and Barber. Not that bad of a trade...

Blazer and Steve Coomes will be at the PCA race at Road Atlanta. You should continue your race with them there.
